2016 Rural Health Academic / Preceptor Award Nomination Form

Submission deadline: September 15, 2016

THIS FORM MAY BE DUPLICATED

The Texas Rural Health Association's (TRHA) annual Rural Health Academic / Preceptor Award recognizes an individual who has made a significant difference in improving the health of rural Texans as an active faculty member at a college or university in Texas. This award will be presented during the Texas Rural Health Association's Awards Luncheon in Austin, Texas Tuesday, October 11, 2016.

TRHA has invited rural stakeholders to come and discuss the many challenges that rural healthcare providers and communities are currently facing. We invite you to take part as well by submitting your award nominations and participating in our annual conference.

Again, the TRHA Rural Health Academic/Preceptor Award recognizes that individual who has made a significant effort to improve rural health care in Texas through the teaching and/or preceptorship at a Texas college or university. Faculty members may be nominated if they fit these award criteria. The nominees must be an active faculty member that places an emphasis on rural healthcare and is actively engaged in teaching, research or preceptor activities that have led to the improvement of the overall health of rural populations.
